CITY NEWS.

THE DEMOCRAT ENLARGED.

We have waited for some time past calling the Democrat, but had almost concluded to change its size until a few news of importance, when we intended making several changes.

To present upon our advertising columns, however, it becomes so great, and is so constantly increasing, that we do not consider it safe to do so, that we may be compelled to give up our advertising space, and that we intended making several changes.

For information—Our readers may remember that a few nights ago a young soldier belonging to a New York regiment, named Sammons, was dangerously shot in a house on Lexington street. On Tuesday night he died from the effects of the wound, and was buried on the following day. The day before he was shot he wrote a letter to his mother in New York, stating that he was in this city and could not come to see her. Yesterday he again appeared in the office at Barracks No. 1, asking Major Nourse if she could be permitted to go to young Sammons. Major Nourse, knowing who she was, told her he could not. The lady said she had been selected as a soldier with "no work," and that our officers will be to themselves, and be liberal in the cause. Let Louisville be clear of the draft, and that very soon.

REBEL DEATHS AND CITIZENS.—The following total deaths and citizens arrived from Nashville eight days before, with orders to remain there until the 1st of the Oslo river to recruit during the month of April.
